Additional Information:

<sup>1</sup>NOTE: The degree requirements for the Master of Accountancy assume a four-year undergraduate degree in accounting or equivalent. In most cases, students without an accounting background will need to take additional preparatory course work, with the length of time to complete the degree determined by individual educational goals and advisor recommendations.

* Accounting students are urged to take the required Edge weekend for BUS 4610 as early in the quarter as possible to avoid conflicts with other Accounting events.

** ACTG 4155 may be replaced by advisor-approved business or accounting elective if student has completed equivalent course work.

*** ACTG 4281 & ACTG 4282 may be replaced by advisor-approved accounting electives if student has completed equivalent course work.

For detailed academic policy information, refer to Graduate Student Handbook. An overall GPA of 3.0 and an accounting GPA of 3.0 is required for graduation. Electives must be graduate (4000-level) courses.

Note: Daniels BSBA or BSACC students please see a MAcc advisor for questions regarding individual degree requirements.
