Professional Designations:

Faculty advisors can assist students in selecting courses that meet some of the educational requirements for the following designations: CCIM, MAI, CIPS, CPM and/or FIABCI.

Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM)

The CCIM designation is for individuals in the commercial brokerage field. Designees will complete specified CCIM courses and must have a strong work history as a commercial broker. If interested in this designation, please discuss these requirements with Dr. Jeff Engelstad at jengelst@du.edu.

Design Build Institute of America (DBIA)

DBIA is the only organization that defines, teaches and promotes design-build best practices. Members are connected to a network of over 4,200 leaders in the design and construction industry. If interested in this organization, please discuss with Dr. Daniel Trujillo at daniel.trujillo@du.edu

International Real Estate Federation (FIABCI)

This is an international certification awarded by the FIABCI organization headquartered in Paris, France. Requirements include completion of specified course work and a portfolio of international real estate transactions. If interested in this designation, please discuss these requirements with Dr. Mark Levine at mlevine@du.edu.

Appraisal Qualifications Board (AQB)

The Franklin L. Burns School of Real Estate and Construction Management has been approved by the Appraiser Qualifications Board (AQB) of The Appraisal Foundation. Under this program, the AQB analyzes degrees in real estate to determine how the education required to obtain a degree can be applied to the Required Core Curriculum in the Real Property Appraiser Qualification Criteria. The results of the review are published for state appraiser regulatory agencies to use when reviewing the educational qualifications of applicants that hold such degrees. AQB approval of a degree in real estate is not a guarantee of acceptance by any individual state appraiser regulatory agency, and DU has not determined whether the Real Estate and the Built Environment program curriculum meets the educational requirements for professional licensure or certification in any State. Please discuss with Dr. Mark Levine at mlevine@du.edu or Dr. Ron Throupe at rthroupe@du.edu Required coursework for the Appraisal Qualification Board (AQB) professional designation. Students must complete; REAL 4407, CMGT 4438, CMGT 4410, REAL 4467, REAL 4007, REAL 4000, REAL 4417, REAL 4477 and REAL 4701 - Adv Valuation/Report Writing course to satisfy the AQB educational requirement.
