Management Minor

The focus of this minor is on effective management of people – the most important resource in business. Students have the opportunity to study such areas as human resource management, organizational behavior, labor relations, ethics, and organizational communication. The coursework has practical applications for general supervision and management, running a family business, and entrepreneurial endeavors.

Course #    Course Title                        Qtr. Hrs.
MGMT 2100  Leading High Performance Organizations  4

Note: Students take this course as part of the Business Core.

Select four courses (16 credits) from the MGMT subject-area:

MGMT Electives                          16

NO independent study or internship credit allowed

Management Minor Requirements          16