LEADING ACROSS GENERATIONS 1.5-DAY WORKSHOP

LEADING ACROSS GENERATIONS: TURNING DIFFERENCES INTO TEAM STRENGTH

Today's workplace brings together people with different experiences, expectations, and working styles. While often labeled as generational, these differences can be driven by communication preferences, feedback needs, and individual motivations.

This workshop helps you move beyond assumptions to understand what's actually driving team dynamics and how to respond more effectively as a leader. You'll build practical strategies to strengthen communication, identify pain points, and lead your team more effectively.

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN

Understand key causes of friction

Identify the factors behind generational differences and what's causing misalignment.

Adapt your leadership approach

Adjust how you communicate, give feedback, and lead based on individual preferences, not assumptions.

Apply insights to improve performance

Leave with a clear, actionable plan to leverage strengths across generations.
